

Note: This was a survey given to parents before their child participated in a program that incorporated equines and law enforcement as the volunteers/mentors to the students.

Please answer the questions below. Please be honest as we would love to get to know you and your child better.

Tell us about your child

My child feels comfortable asking an adult for help

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child has confidence in what they do

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child finishes things that they start

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child feels that it is ok to make mistakes

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child has done things that they are proud of

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child feels like they are a failure

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child is happy with who they are

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child has been bullied in person or through technology

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child has bullied someone in person or through technology

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child knows how to manage their time when they are given something to do

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child is respectful to their peers (friends, classmates, etc)

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child is respectful to adults/authority

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child can work well with others in a group

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child feels that they have control over their own success in life (relationships, school, work)

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child feels they will be able to reach their goals in life

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child talks about what they want to do in life when they grow up

Never Not really Sometimes Always

My child knows how to prioritize tasks (homework, chores, projects) when several of them are given

Never Not really Sometimes Always

How do you feel about police/authority?

I feel my child would be comfortable asking a police officer for help

Never Not really Sometimes Always

I feel my child can trust the police/police officers

Never Not really Sometimes Always

I feel that my child respects police/police officers

Never Not really Sometimes Always

I think my child feels the police are there to help people

Never Not really Sometimes Always

Additional Feedback

Have you had any interactions (good or bad) with police? If yes, can you explain what happened?

If you could ask a police officer any question- what would you ask? (we will give the officers a chance to answer these but we will not tell them who asked the question)

What does your child say they want to be when they grow up? What are some big dreams that they have?

_____ Boy Girl
Child's First & Last Name Age Circle One

Parent/Guardian's name that completed this form: _____